GREAT CHANGE FOR THE BETTER

Policy of Reaction Perished With Von Plehve.

DAWN OF NEW DAY IN RUSSIA

PRINCE SVIATOPOLK - MIRSKY THE MAN OF THE HOUR.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 13.-Russia is facing a great internal crisis, which, in the minds of the intelligent Russians, overshadows in importance all questions relating to foreign politics. A new, broad and liberal movement seems not only under way, but gaining nomentum daily, and the best feature of it is that it is entirely divorced from any radical revolutionary propaganda. Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky, the minister of the interior, has given the movement impetus, but has done so against the most powerful influences and behind the scenes a bitter struggle is waging for imperial support. During the coming week the first test of strength is likely to occur, the result of which may mean much for the history of Russia.

Halt Is Called.

The policy of reaction which had grown steadily since the accession of Alexander III seemed suddenly to lose its main bulwark when Minister Plehve fell. With the advent of Prince Sviat-opolk-Mirsky and his frank appeal for a policy of mutual confidence between government and people, a tremendous liberal rebound occurred, raising, per-haps unjustifiably, high hopes and irations. An American enjoying absolute political freedom can hardly apthe full significance of the changes that occurred since Prince inauguration Sviatopolk - Mirsky's The Russian policy as regards Finland, if not reversed, has been greatly ameliorated, and the Finnish national diet will meet next month. Only yesterday prominent Finlanders who were exiled under the Plehve regime received permission to return to their own country or to go abroad if they desired to do so. The oppressive activity of the police throughout the empire has been largely relaxed; banishment by administrative order has been abolished; hundreds of political prisoners exiled to Siberia have been recalled; the Jews have received assurances of the dawning of a brighter day; the doors have been thrown open at two of the biggest trials | cultural implements, fire extinguishers, proceeding in Russia (the Schaumann reason trial and the Jewish trial at Gomel), and the method of treating student demonstrations has been radically changed. Persuasion is being substituted for Cossack charges.

Press Has Liberty.

But nowhere are the changes so marked as in the matter of the press. After years of the strictest censorship Russian papers suddenly found their voices within the last fortnight and were remarkably plain-spoken in the discussion of internal affairs, and especially in connection with the forth-coming meeting of Zemstvo reports. All accounts of the Schaumann Gomel trials have been printed, and even particulars of student demonstrations, with resolutions offered at the polytechnic institute declaring that what was wanted was not confidence, but an end of the war and the imme diate convocation of a national as-sembly. Such an unprecedented publication made the Russian public rub its eyes in amazement. Prince Ouktomsky, editor of the Viodomsti, said to the ciated Press today that never with in his memory had Russian newspapers been allowed such liberties; yet these things had been done quietly and without public proclamation. As a rule, he scide the laws had not been modified. For instance, the old press law is still hanging above the heads of editors like the sword of Damocles. The machinery of repression exists, but is not in oper-

In the meantime, about the head of Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky has raged a storm of opposition. All the reactionary elements, including the solid bureaucracy, have used all the weapons at hand to undermine him. M. Pobledenester and the suspension of $35,000,000, and to raise the balance, $35,000,000, by loans. M. Pobledonosteff, procurator of the holy synod, has warned the emperor that if rumors attributed to court circles are creditable, autocracy and orthodoxy will both be in danger if the present movement is not stopped promptly A week ago it was actually believed that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky had been overthrown, but subsequent developments proved the contrary. Nevertheless, his enemies persistently keep reports affoat that the health of the minister of the interior is bad, and that the nature of the campaign which he is fighting is enough to shatter the health of a strong man.

People With the Prince.

In the character of the elements which have rallied to his support, however, lies Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky's strength. They include neither radicals nor revolutionaries, but the great mass, of conservative, liberal-minded, loyal Russians, who believe that the substation and probelieve that the salvation and pro-gress of the empire lies in larger lib-It is said that she returned to l erties, but who have not a particle of sympathy with violence or revolution. It is fortunate, indeed, that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky has not attracted would place a powerful weapon in the the Vladivostok squadron hands of his adversaries

The enemies of the minister of the earth to postpone the meeting of the presidents of the thirty-eight provincial Zemstvos which is scheduled for next Saturday, and in the present circumstances some of the minister's own friends are counselling him to allow a postponement until January, fearing that a too radical expression of views in the agitation raised might furnish too much ammunition for the opposition.

M. Shipoff, president of the Moscow Zemstvo, who will preside at the meeting, favors this temporizing policy. It is even reported that Prince Sviatopolk-Mirsky is wavering, though his friends declare that this untrue.

Czar Will Decide.

The whole question will be decided by the emperor early in the week. Some of the presidents already here are ex-cited over the possibility of postponement, declaring that if the meeting is formally postponed it will be held sur-reptitiously. Undoubtedly postpone-ment would be a crushing blow and create an exceedingly bad impression. This is due to the fact that the meeting has been clothed with a sentimental importance hardly justified by its actual powers. It is purely unofficial, without direct authority to act; but, it is the first time of an authorized as sembling of representatives of the Zemstvo from all over Russia. The meeting is not intended to be of a public character. The programme includes the decision of three points, namely:
First. The conditions which have prevented Zemstvo activity, giving wide scope for consideration of the very questions heretofore prohibited. Second. The organization of a cen-tral administration of agriculture. Third. Co-operation of local Zemstvo parliament, where the wishes of the provincial Zemstvos could be yoiced. They also raise the question of the character of the central Zemnstvo unit, and the collateral question of the elect ve principle in the matter of represent-ation. However, as the conference will be private, its décisions will be more

Must Move Slowly.

The best friends of the Zemstvos believe that too great haste would be un-fortunate, and urge that the presidents use the greatest discretion and avoid giving a final decision which might be thrown aside and put an end to future ssibilities. Instead, they urge that polk-Mirsky has proposed to divide the empire into sixteen districts, from which the Zemstvos should select representatives to form a central council. entirely without foundation. whole subject remains to be worked ceeds eventually its best friends realize that plans must crystallize gradually, as a sudden decision which would produce a shock might be fatal to the

JAPANESE WILL HAVE A WAR TAX

Duties to Be Increased on Large Number of Articles.

EXPENSES TO BE CUT DOWN

WITH NEW LOAN.

Tokio, Nov. 13 .- A draft of the war tax measure which the government plans to submit to the diet, which is to meet Nov. 28, shows a proposed increase in import duties of $750,000, Divided among a large number of articles the increase on individual articles is small except in the case of tobacco, glassware, beverages and kerosene.

A dispatch from Tokio Oct. 31 said that in the preliminary estimates of the oudget covering January, February and March, 1905, and the fiscal year commencing in April, the war expenses were estimated at $385,000,000 and ordinary expenses at $60,000,000. It was proposed to provide for the war expenses by increasing the taxation by $45,000,000, by retrenching from the ad-

Russians Repulsed.

Tokio, Nov. 13, 7 p. m .- The Manchurian army headquarters, telegraphing today, says:

"In the direction of the left army, the enemy attacked from Wuchentai Nov. 11 at 12:30 o'clock in the morning.

They were repulsed.
"On Nov. 9 200 infantry and 300 cav-lary appeared in the direction of Siaozaiton. Our force stationed there re-pulsed them. The Russians retreated 5 Machuantzu.

"The Russian losses were sixty. Ours

Struck a Rock.

that the Russian armored cruiser Gromobol struck a rock and was severely damaged at Vladivostok. It is understood that the accident happened during a trial of the Gromoboi after It is said that she returned to her erth in a sinking condition, surrounded by a fleet of smaller craft, which kept her afloat and that she was re-

Nothing From Port Arthur. Chefoo, Nov. 13.—No news of developments at Port Arthur has been received here today. Burnett's Vanilla Extract is the best. The grecers know it. Insist on having Burnett's. It is for your food. Pure and wholesome.

A Good Motto.

(Baltimore American.) Upon the door I saw a sign;
I cried, a "A motto! And it's mine!"
A wiser thing I never saw—
No Median or Persian law
Should be more rigidly enforced
Than this, from verbiage divorced;
Its logic's firm as any rock—
"Push—don't knock."

'Twas simply meant to guide the hand Of those who wished to sit or stand Within the unassuming door This weight of sermonry that bore. 'Twas never meant to teach or preach, But just to place in easy reach The ear of him who dealt in stock—"Push—don't knock."

But what a guide for life was that-Strong, philosophical and pat;
How safe a chart for you and me
White cruising o'er life's restless sea;
Push, always push, with goal in view;
Don't knock—avoid the hammer crew.
This rule will save you many a shock;
"Push—don't knock."

Let Himself Out.

(Philadelphia Public Ledger.) "I constructed a fire-escape yesterday

RATE WAR BETWEEN TRANS-ATLANTIC STEAMSHIP COMPANIES IS OVER

Berlin, Nov. 13.—The rate war be- stored immediately and all war meastween the trans-Atlantic steamship ures withdrawn from today. a thing of the past, a two days' conference, at which all the leading companies were represented, having resulted in a treaty of peace. The exact terms of the agreement which are subthe presidents work out a clear plan for summoning such a conference in the future.

Jected to ratification by the Hungarian "Negotiations having been concluding such a conference in government have not been made public, but it is stated that the Cunard ment's approval, inasmuch as the Cumpany will join the association of the rest of the company will join the association of the rest of t companies over the third-class rates the conference were the Hamburg-originating with the Cunard company's American, North German-Lloyd, Com-Among the companies represented at John A. Johnson. Just Elected invasion of Hungarian territory, is now paigne Generale Trans-Atlantique, the a thing of the past, a two days' con- Cunard, Red Star and Adria-Hungarian. About thirty representatives of the various steamship companies participat- ATTACK ON ORIGIN REACTED

The following official statement has company will join the association of continental lines so far as continental continental lines so far as continental continental traffic join the association of continental traffic, join the association of continental steamship companies, and all war measures will be withnard and continental lines will be resumed continental rates will be resumed, continental rates will be re- drawn from today and continental rates

Was Passenger.

FUL TO HEAR.

Engineer's Awful Death.

First Persons Rescued.

A Miraculous Escape.

Testing Their Efficacy.

(Cleveland Leader.)

to bed.

"One night she was called away and returned to find him snuggled under the warm blankets.

"Did you say your prayers, dear?' she inculted.

"Nope," was the answer.

"'Are you not going to say them?'

"I didn't say 'em last night nor tonight,' said the small heathen, cheerfully, 'an' then if nothin' happens tomorow night, I won't say 'em any more at all."

Out For Trouble.

(Cleveland Plain Dealer.)

OFFICERS FIND TELLS STORY OF A HUMAN HAND RAILROAD WRECK

Gruesome Souvenir Under Tom Morris Block of Kansas City King's Pillow.

REFUSES TO TELL THE STORY SIGHT BEGGARS DESCRIPTION

POLICE ARE STAGGERED WITH MOANS OF DYING WERE PITI-NATURE OF DISCOVERY.

While searching through Tom King's | Morris Block of Kansas City, who GOVERNMENT NOT SATISFIED apartments for evidence of theft in an old was in the Union Pacific wreck near ouse in the rear of the city jail, Sergeant Granger Saturday morning, is a guest Roberts and Officer Seager found a woman's hand tied in the foot of one of at the Southern hotel. His wrist was King's odd socks and hidden under his injured slightly while rescuing some pillow. The astonished officers thought they had discovered a clue to a murder. "I was in the last Pullman, eleven him about the hand. Tom denied the charge of murder, but when any other question was asked about it he refused to talk. The officers demanded to know what he did with it, to whom it belonged, if the woman was dealers.

Among the articles on which it is proposed to increase the duty are objects of art, ammunition, compasses, crucially are objects of art, ammunition, compasses, crucially are considered and compelled in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Practically the same as outlined in previous dispatches of the Associated Press, except that further reductions have been made in ordinary government, but the delay in capturing Port Arthur and the deen turn of the terms of the recent foreign loan, said that the loan was unsatisfactory to the government, but the delay in capturing Port Arthur and the departure of the Russian Baltic fleet had created a hitch in the negotiations and had compelled the acceptance of terms less advantageous than those of the first foreign loan.

A dispatch from Tokio Oct. 31 said

Tom Drinks the Evidence.

Tom Drinks the Evidence.

Tom Drinks the Evidence.

In one corner of the room was a luge pile of empty whisky bottles and flasks, but the bottles were drained and Tom had drank the evidence. The officers left them undisturbed and turned their attention to the other things. They were packed away in different places and were as well classified as the "want ads" in the daily newspapers. In one corner he had trousers, in another dresses and boxes were piled up in one end of the room containing knives, forks and numerous other articles in their separate places. The officers drove the patrol wagon around to the room and loaded it up, taking the stuff back to the station. Tom will not be tried for this crime, for his dishonorable discharge and his promotion to the chain gang is considered enough punishment.

TERRIFIC STORM

(Continued from Page 1.)

way stations developed the fact that rains were departing on schedule time, but that incoming trains were three or more hours late. The snowfall of today was the first of the season Tokio, Nov. 14, 10 a. m .- It is reported | inches covering the ground. It started with a drizzling rain, which later turned into a heavy, wet snow. The ocal telephone service was seriously

Storm at Baltimore.

Baltimore, Md., Nov. 13 .- A snow, rind, and rain storm, which developed ere early this morning and continued through the day and night, caused an almost complete prostration of electric Sviatopolk-Mirsky has not attracted docked. If the report is true it assures almost complete prostration of electric the support of the radicals, for that the continuance of the inactivity of light, telegraph, telephone and trolley cars. A number of accidents were occasioned by the heavily charged wires during the day and tonight, but so far known there have been no fatali-

With the exception of a few Western Union wires to Philadelphia and New York, Baltimore is cut off from comnunication with other points of the

The local weather observer sent out tonight a warning to masters of ves-sels to the effect that a second storm is fast traveling up the Atlantic coast and is expected to reach this section tonight. Aside from the interruption to telegraphic and telephonic communication with the outside world and the ninor accidents above referred to there have been no serious results recorded at midnight.

Traffic Suspended.

York, Pa., Nov. 13.-Telephone and elegraph wires are down, trolley cars are stalled, railway trains are greatly delayed, and there is a general suspension of traffic in this city and throughout York county tonight as the result of what is said to be the heaviest snow storm York ever experienced at this time of the year. snow storm York ever experienced at this time of the year. It is estimated that snow fell to a depth of a foot on the level. The city is in darkness owing to the crossing of wires and the falling of many poles, due to the wires being weighted down with snow. No attempt was made tonight to remedy conditions. All telephone service is entirely out of commission tirely out of commission.

Snow and Wind.

Saratoga, N. Y., Nov. 13.—With the temperature at freezing point, a heavy snowstorm began today and is continuing tonight. It is accompanied by a driving wind.

Cold in Tennessee.

hospitals in the case of wounded people.

Although the subjects appear vague and indefinite, all aim at national cooperation of the Zemstvos, which con-

SON OF PAUPER RISES TO FAME

Governor of Minnesota.

CAMPAIGN OF SLANDER IS RE-BUKED AT THE POLLS.

St. Paul, Nov. 13 .- John A. Johnson, whose father died in poverty, and whose mother did washing to support the large and helpless family, and who was taunted with these facts during the campaign, has been elected governor of this state by a plurality that will exceed 25,000. He was the Democratic candidate, and President Roose-velt carried the state by a plurality of not less than 125,000. The campaign against Johnson's lowly origin had a reactionary effect, and the people are proud of their governor-elect, who has worked his way to the highest office in the state against odds and obstacles that have tried his mettle and found it always true. Now he is projected on the political screen as a candidate for the highest office in the nation. Robert C. Dunn, the Republican candidate, had for several years been looked upon as the logical candidate for the Republican nomination, but he won the honor only after a bitter factional fight, which split the party.

Johnson was nominated by the Demoerats when there was but the faintest hope of electing him. The nomination was given him in the nature of an empty honor, and, as far as the party managers were concerned, the incident was closed when the convention ad-

Goes in to Win.

The search for evidence was immediately stopped for a moment and the hand was taken to the jail, where Tom was locked up. He was taken to the dungeon by the officers and after they had placed him in as if there were three crashes in quick as if there were three crashes in quick had practically forced the nomination between the faction of the Republican party which had practically forced the nomination of the Republican party which as if there were three crashes in quick succession. I did not know what had happened, but quickly dressed and went outside to see what was the matter.

"The scene beggared description. The two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron. The baggage and mail two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron. The baggage and mail two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron. The baggage and mail two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron. The baggage and mail two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron.

two engines were rendered into heaps of scrap iron. The baggage and mail cars were wrecked, as was also part of the forward coach. The cries and moans of the injured and dying came from under the cars. The passengers all worked hard for twelve hours extracting the bodies from the wreck.

Toward Johnson, who is of Swedish parentage, was making a house-to-house canvass of the state. The fact that he is a Swede and a native of Minnesota appealed to the large Swedish population. and his progress tracting the bodies from the wreck. The cars caught fire several times and newspapers of the Twin Cities took up we were kept busy extinguishing the flames with water from the filters. A ception they did not support Dunn with bonfire was built on either side of the anything approaching vigor or effectively. track with splinters from the smashed cars to give light and warmth. The right was cold, but the air was dry and the rescuers worked so hard that none suffered from the cold.

anything approaching visc.

iveness. His record as state auditor was assailed by newspapers of all political creeds, but the chief fault found with him was that his personality was not acceptable to the people. anything approaching vigor or effect-iveness. His record as state auditor

Attack on Origin.

"B. F. Eckles, the engineer of the At this stage of the campaign a series of slurring attacks upon the lowly freight train, presented a fearful sight. His body was literally parboiled by the steam and hot water from his locomoparentage of Johnson began to circu tive. Mrs. W. Demming Smith of Portland was one of the most heroic of the passengers who aided the injured and dying. She did much to relieve the late. Circulars, widely distributed, but the authorship of which could not be traced, announced that his father had died a pauper. This statement was suffering of Engineer Eckles during his laid upon the fact that his mother had taken in washing. The intent was clearly to prove that Johnson had suf-"The accident must have happened close after midnight for Eckles' watch had stopped at 12:01 o'clock. No. 3, the he could have supported him.

passenger train, was coming down a slight grade at about 45 miles an hour.

The fast freight, which consisted of a The fast freight, which consisted of a trainload of California fruit bound for the east, was going in the opposite direction at about 35 miles an hour, also down grade. The trains came together at the bottom. The wreck took place between Granger and Azusa siding. The passenger was an hour and a half the trains should meet at Granger. In stead the orders of the freight crew were that the passenger was an hour and 50 minutes late, so the freight was far as it could before having to wait for the west bound train.

"The moaning of these hencets the

for the west bound train.

"The moaning of those beneath the cars was awful. The cries gradually weakened, which meant that the ones pinned under the wreckage had been refaces of some of those brought cut were purple and drawn with pain.

If the cries gradually the did what the could give, was practically the sole support of the family. He did what support of the family. First Persons Rescued.

"The first two persons rescued were passengers from the forward coach. This car was only partially destroyed. The injured were placed in a tourist car and made as comfortable as possible. None of the cars of either train left the track. Both engines were thrown down the embankment. The baggage and mail cars on the passenger were destroyed and four fruit cars on the freight were demolished. From these oranges, lemons, nuts and canned fruit were scattered along the track near the wreck.

"Five of the six members of the freight crew were killed—all but the rear brakeman. The surviving fireman on the passenger told some of us passengers that he did not see the headlight of the freight engine at all, so the trains were close before the engineer noticed the other locomotive and applied the brakes. Railroad men of twenty years' experience said the wreck was the worst one they had ever seen. I have been traveling myself for fifteen years and it is the first smash-up I was ever in.

A Miraculous Escape,

A coincidence of the campaign was that Johnson's opponent also is a newspaper man, as are also the chairmen of the two state central committees.

"A most miraculous escape was that of a passenger on the forward coach. He was sitting on one seat alone while his three children were stretched out on a double seat in front of him. The passenger on the seat behind them and on the one in front of them were roth killed, but this family of four came out without a scratch. METEOROLOGICAL REPORT. Yesterday's Record at the Local Office of the Weather Bureau.

but this family of four came out without a scratch.

"Most of the passengers continued west on train No. 1, which passed the scene of the wreck in the middle of the afternoon. No. 3, which came through twenty-four hours after the accident, picked up the mail and baggage. We arrived in Ogden at 7:35 in the evening and were compelled to wait there until midnight before we could get aboard a train for Salt Lake. A Cache valley local passed through the Junction City on its way south at 2:20 o'clock, but none of the passengers were notified, so could not take that train to the city." Maximum temperature, 52 degrees; minimum temperature 25 degrees; mean temperature, 49 degrees, which is 2 degrees above the normal. Accumulated excess of temperature since the first of the month, 43 degrees. Accumulated excess of temperature since Jan. 1, 59 degrees Total precipitation from 5 p. m. to 6 p. m., none. Accumulated deficiency of precipitation since the first of the month, 59 inch. Accumulated excess of precipitation since the lst of January, 1,58 inches.

PERSONAL.

W. C. Spence, wife and daugnter, Lula and Mrs. G. F. Felt, will return tomorrow from New York, Chicago and Washington, having also visited the St. Louis exposition. James Whitcomb Riley was fond of telling the following story:

"A certain young mother was striving to bring up her small son in a proper Christian manner.

"His day ended with the usual short prayer at his mother's knee before going to bed.

The Truthful Fisherman. (Harper's Weekly.)

The late Senator Quay, himself a great isherman, used to enjoy telling of the all stories recounted by the West Virdina anglers along the banks of the heat river. One day a stranger from Maryland, in search of sport, asked one of the na-tives whether there was good fishing in tives whether there was good fishing in the vicinity.

"None better anywhere," was the reply.

"What kind of fish have you hereabouts?" asked the stranger.

"Oh, most all kinds."

"I hope there are some game fish to be had." continued the man from Maryland.

"Tell me what was the weight of the largest fish ever caught in this region."

"Well, sir." responded the West Virginian, "we don't never take no weighin' machines with us when we fish, so I wouldn't like to say, bein' an honest man, just how much that last trout of mine did weigh. But, stranger, I don't mind teilin' you that when I pulled that fish out of the water the river went down a foot!" The Russian captain nearer.)

The Russian captain nervously paced the bridge. Suddenly the lookout signted a diminutive sailing craft on the lee bow. Instantly the guns were double shotted and the ship stripped for action.

"What craft is that?" roared the whiskered commander.

"It's th' fishin' schooner Lively Lena.'

Pete Wilkins, master," came back the hoarse reply.

In the Old Barn.

"Are you a helligerent?"
"Dunno what it is."
"Do you want to fight?"
"N-n-no!"
"Then come on."
"And a moment later a shower of projectiles sent the pulkappy schooner to the dark and dismal depths. (Chicago News.)

It was at the Kentucky husking bee.

"I suppose it's considered lucky to get the red ear?" ventured the tourist.

"Not always, pard." warned the lanky youth. "If you go kissing the wrong girl it's mighty unlucky."

LONDON VIEWS OF PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT

London, Nev. 12 .- The weekly newspapers issued today devote considerable space to the presidential election in the United States and all dwell lengthily upon the personality of President Roosevelt as the prime factor in the Republican victory. The most notable article appears in the Spectator, which preludes a splendid tribute to the president with the admission:

For ourselves, we do not profess any special liking for the Republican party," while in the same paragraph it says the result of the election is "a subject for congratulation through-out the English-speaking world." The Spectator then asks:

"What will he do with it?" and pre-ceeds to credit Mr. Roosevelt with an ideal programme for the next four years, the standard of which will be 'reason, justice, moderation and com-

World Power Policy.

Discussing the prospective policy of the American government in relation to foreign affairs, the Spectator says President Roosevelt will not be afraid to insist that the United States shall to insist that the United States shall ocratic party as less menals to hold her own among the great powers of the world, but he will not seek foreign entanglements. The paper continues:

"If the Monroe doctrine is not to be part of the newly elected president will appear to the newly elected president will president to the political waste paper."

consigned to the political waste paper basket, it must rest in the last resource upon naval and military power, and if America has not a fleet strong enough to say 'thus far, and no further,' to those who challenge the doctrine, that doctrine in the future will not prove worth the paper on which the presi-dential message of 1823 was written." After predicting that the Panama canal will be completed by President Rooseveit, the Spectator says:

"In the far east and in all that concerns the future of China we may expect the president, acting under the advice of Secretary Hay, who is now unquestionably one of the ablest, if not the ablest, of living diplomats, to maintain the attitude already adopted." Much Is Expected. Concluding, the Spectator says: "We believe his administration will leave indelible traces upon the larger part of the English-speaking race, and that for the whole of that race will be a lesson in and sound example of sound, The Speaker and Saturday Review take a less enthusiastic view of President Rooseveit's foreign policy.

The Speaker says it is represented by a determination to "get there just the same, which, involving, as it does,

a disregard of treaties and the employ of armed force upon the slighte provocation or pretext, represents The Saturday Review says: "We have often expressed the conviction that this country has little to gain in the end from a translation into action of Pres ident Roosevelt's views of foreign af-fairs. It has been the fashion among us of late to applaud Republican vic-tories and encourage the idea among Americans that we look upon the Democratic party as less friendly to us than the Republican. This we believe Queer.

(Philadelphia Press.) Mr. Henpeck-I'm sorry you said "Yes" when I proposed to you first,
Mrs. Henpeck-Indeed?
Mr. Henpeck-Yes, because now whenever I propose anything to you, you say "No."

YOUR TREDIT IS GOOD MONDAY SPECIAL Just the thing for the table, a nice large glass water pitcher, and six glasses to match. This special is worth double what we are asking for it. For today only the price is 55 Cents Freed Furniture & Carpet Co. 18 to 40 East 3rd South Street.

Neither diamonds, hearts, spades or clubs-but in this game of "dress-up" we hold the "trump" hand — H. S. & M. "suits." You can play them to win every hand—they'll take every "trick" in the game.

> Ante from $15 to $40--according to the "game" you want to play. You can't lose. Thousands—yes, hundreds of thousands of good dressers are in the "deal" -and they know. So do we.

RICHARDSON & ADAMS,

"A Clothes Shop for Men

at 172 Main Street"

7 The Sun Shines Now

But the storm will soon be here, and why not be prepared for it when it does come by getting your warm clothing NOW.

We can fit you out with

OVERCOATS. WINTER SUITS. UNDERWEAR

and everything for your comfort at small prices. Hats and Caps) Children's Suits

Furnishings AT LOWEST PRICES Boys' School Suits

POULTON, MADSEN, OWEN & CO. 111-113 MAIN STREET.
